Section 1, Special Branch,

October 9, 1939.

Communication dated 21-9-39 from the Macau Police concerning a group of Russian gypsies.

Members of the three Russian gypsy families mentioned in the attached communication from the Macau Police are reported to have been residing in Shanghai for several years and are registered with the Russian Immigrants Committee. On 1-5-39, in connection with their application for visas to Macau, George S. STANESKO, Ilya V. MINESKO and Alexis I. STANESKO, the respective heads of the said families, were issued by the Committee with certificates to the effect that they and members of their families enumerated in each certificate are duly registered with the Committee.

These people are known to have been working locally as musicians, singers, dancers, fortune tellers etc. On the whole gypsies in Shanghai do not enjoy a good reputation.

Three of the group in question are, in all probability, identical with the undermentioned individuals who have come to the notice of the Municipal Police in connection with criminal activities:-

1. STANESKO, Gregory. Musician.

On 23-11-37 he was sentenced by the 1st S.S.D. Court to 2 months imprisonment on a charge of Larceny by Trick (C.R.C. No. 2859).

2. STANESKO, Pavlena

Wife of Alexis Stanesko. On 9-1-29 she was charged at the French Mixed Court with Begging and was cautioned. On 14-11-36 she was brought before the 1st S.S.D. Court on a charge of Fraud and was sentenced to 30 days detention. (C.R.C. No. 1271).

3. STANESKO, Stepan. Musician.

He was arrested by the S.M.P. in June, 1932 on suspicion of having participated with another gypsy in a Larceny by Trick (ringing the changes), but owing to lack of evidence he was released. (Louza F.I.R. 1300/32).

Stepan Stanesko and another gypsy named Alexander MINASKO also came to the notice of this office in connection with the notifications they published in the "Shun Pao" of October 27, 1936 and in the "Min Pao" of February 5, 1937, respectively, announcing their naturalization as Chinese citizens.
